

EHS Specialist

Experience with OSHA compliance, worker's compensation, environmental safety, industrial hygiene compliance and implementing safety policies and procedures. Will head the safety steering committee and address workplace hazards.

Experience/Qualifications:

1. Bachelor's degree (or equivalent experience) in safety engineering, mechanical engineering, or related field.
2. Five years' professional safety experience in manufacturing industry.
3. Strong verbal, written, analytical, and persuasive skills and the ability to interact effectively with all levels of employees and management.